The background is a complex geometric composition. It features several large triangular and quadrilateral shapes in shades of yellow, orange, and grey. A prominent feature is a series of parallel, diagonal stripes in purple and light grey that cut across the lower right portion of the image. The overall aesthetic is modern and abstract, with a focus on bold colors and sharp lines.

A close-up, top-down view of a vast field of pink chrysanthemum flowers. The flowers are densely packed, filling the entire frame. They have multiple layers of thin, pointed petals radiating from a central dark brown core. The lighting is bright, highlighting the texture and color of the petals. The background is a dark, almost black, which makes the vibrant pink of the flowers stand out.

A large, ancient stone pyramid, likely from the Mayan or Aztec civilization, stands prominently against a dramatic sky at sunset. The sky is filled with soft, golden clouds, and the sun's glow illuminates the scene. The pyramid is constructed from dark, weathered stone blocks and features a wide staircase on its side. The text "INSPIRACIÓN MÉXICO" is overlaid in a bold, white, italicized font across the center of the image.
